From the Editor

Don't you just love the Christmas Spirit in the Shopping Malls? Ah yes, the spirit of giving and brotherly love. I got to witness it first hand recently. After a successful shopping trip, I stopped in at the cookie shop to grab some much needed nutritional fuel to keep up my energy level. So I get in line behind three other people and their children. Lo and behold the two moms in the front get into a 'discussion' over who was next in line. I had no idea who was next. I walked up too late to witness it. Finally one of the ladies said, "Go ahead, but just know we were here first." After the woman grabbed her cookie for her little boy and took off, the person in front of me turns around and says, "She was wrong. The other family was here first."

After I got my cookie and drink, I sat down at a table to check my list. When I glanced to my right, I realized I'd sat down next to the 'winner' in the battle of the Cookie. I wondered about her. She was dressed in festive Christmas clothing as was her son. The other family was obviously not as well off as she was if clothing is anything to judge by. I had to wonder if winning that place in line was worth what it cost her. She lost something very important in that skirmish over a place in line. She lost her witness to her son. She taught her son that if you are obnoxious enough, you'll get your way. She taught him that it is important to be FIRST. And finally, she taught him that it is better to receive than to give. I guess some people would think the other mom was the loser, weak even....after all, she didn't stand up for her rights. She should have fought for her place in line. She earned the right to be first.

But it struck me that of the two women, the mom who gave up her place in line embodied a Christ-like attitude. Put other people first, be humble, and give to others. I doubt she realized that in those moments she gave her children much more than a cookie. She gave them a lesson in life. She and her children walked away rich for they were 'poor in spirit.' God says Blessed are the humble (poor in spirit) for theirs is the kingdom of Heaven.

"Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit, but in humility consider others better than yourselves. Each of you should look not only to your own interests but also to the interests of others. Your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus: Who, being in the very nature of God did not consider equality with God to be something to be grasped, but made himself nothing, taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness."

“The Play’s the Thing”

American Theatre Arts for Youth will be coming to Macon again this school year with some great musical productions. I would encourage anyone whose has never been to one of their productions to attend one this year. The productions are usually very well done. They are performed at the Macon City Auditorium and are about 70 minutes long. The group price is $7.25 per person (with groups of 10 or more). They also offer a 2 show discount rate of $12.90 per person if anyone is interested in seeing more than one show this year. This years offerings are as follows:

Feb 7th (Thurs), 10am - Ellis Island: Gateway to Dreams (Deadline to sign up is Jan 10)

This play portrays the experiences of immigrants who came through Ellis Island. It shows their courage and spirit, as well as, they challenges they faced in a new land. My family has been to see this one and we enjoyed it so much that we plan to see it again this year.

Apr. 1st (Tues), 10am - Sleeping Beauty (deadline to sign up is Mar 1)

This is a portrayal of the children's classic

May 13th (Tues), 10am - Beauty and the Beast (deadline to sign up is April 13th)

This is a portrayal of the children's classic

There are no age ranges listed in the brochure for these shows; but from past experience, the first 2 shows will probably appeal more to older children and teenagers, while Sleeping Beauty and Beauty & the Beast will probably appeal more to younger children.

NOTE: If anyone is interested in seeing 2 of the shows, please consider ordering both tickets at the same time as this will save you money. To sign up, please mail a check along with a note stating which play(s) you wish to see and who will be attending to the following address:

Lisa Johnson
966 Santa Fe Trail
Macon, GA 31220

If you have questions, call me at 478-477-3149 or email me at johnsonllk@yahoo.com. One question frequently asked in the past has been about very young children. If your child is small enough to sit in your lap for the 70 minute show, then they can get in free.

Otherwise, if they take up a seat, you will have to pay for them.

Career Guidance for High School

By Leanne May

I want to share with you an exciting opportunity available through Veritas FBLA (Future Business Leaders of America) members to all MGCHSA members at an excellent rate. Crown Financial Ministries offers an online assessment system for high schoolers that combines biblical principles of stewardship of talents with cutting edge career guidance technology. Please read the following excerpt from their website (www.crown.org):

What is Career Direct? Career Direct is a revolutionary assessment system that combines biblical principles of stewardship of talents with cutting-edge career guidance technology.

What makes Career Direct unique?

- ◆ Career Direct is one of the few assessment tools that approaches the field of career guidance from a biblical perspective.
- ◆ Most career assessments examine just one or two areas. Career Direct examines four essential components of career selection: personality, interests, skills, and values. As a result, Career Direct is one of the most comprehensive guidance systems on the market today.
- ◆ Career Direct was developed over a 10-year period and has been rigorously tested and validated, using standard psychometric principles of testing and measurement. Over 120,000 adults and students have benefited from taking the Career Direct Complete Guidance System.

How long does it take to complete Career Direct? The assessment component can be completed in about an hour. You receive a comprehensive, easy-to-read, personalized report that can be immediately viewed or printed. Normally, the cost of this online assessment is $80. Crown Ministries, however, offers an institutional rate available to our group. The cost will be $30.00 per student. Please let me know as soon as possible if your son/daughter plans to take the test. You may go to their website at: <http://www.careerdirectonline.org/about/>

The test is administered online and will be available starting at the end of January or the beginning of February. You will be notified of the date. Please be sure to include your phone number and email on the form. Your check is your sign up. Please fill out the form below and mail your payment to me postmarked by December 28th (make special note we have moved and the address on the form below is correct...directory info is NOT correct).
